Passage

As Mr. Hemant entered the gate, the kids were playing cricket in the parking lot. One of them shouted, "Here comes uncle Hemant! He will play with us now." A few of them ran towards him to pick his bag and lunch box. They were very joyful to see him. He said to them that "I'll be back in a few minutes, let me freshen up first" but they insisted him to play with them first. He agreed to their loving and humble request and started playing with them.

Time passed away slowly. The kids were so happy that they even forgot the time. It was 8 o'clock now when the mothers asked their kids to come back home and let their uncle take some . All of them were reluctant to go back home but he made a promise to them that "tomorrow is Sunday and we will play for the whole day and now everyone should go back home".

Kids were very happy and they went back home, thinking and planning for the next day, as to what will they play with their loving uncle on Sunday.
